Hello and welcome to our 40th anniversary Filmfest!

I am gratified to be heading into my third consecutive year with Aspen Film. It is incredible that this organization has been creating inspiring cinematic experiences in Aspen and beyond for four decades now. And it’s all thanks to you, our incredible members, patrons and audiences. Thank you for supporting us and our mission to enlighten, enrich, educate and entertain through film!

We’re incredibly proud of this year’s program, which focuses very much on family, artistry, perseverance and change-making, particularly in the face of adversity.

The characters and subjects in our slate of 23 films are all heroes in their own right, illuminating new ways of helping, healing and enlightening a community or the world in general. Our films present artists, performers and regular people who have brought about social change through their actions and passion. My takeaway having curated this year’s program is that each of us has the ability to make a difference and bring about positive change, even if that begins with affecting one person at a time. One of the most amazing aspects of cinema is its ability to shine a light and stimulate dialogue, which often leads to some transformation.

Many of our films have found their way to Aspen after premiering and winning awards at notable festivals around the world. Several of our documentaries are discoveries and we are lucky enough to share these with you as they begin their festival journeys. We are also fortunate to have so many filmmakers coming to town to talk about their work, and in a couple of instances, go in-depth about tackling certain subjects, or evolution that has come about for them or their subjects in the making of these docs.

I am honored to be able to bring this caliber of film to our valley, knowing how much our audience appreciates world-class storytelling. I hope you too will be as inspired, stimulated and encouraged by our program as I am.

In honor of our 40th anniversary, we are ecstatic to recognize one of Aspen’s notable talents with Aspen Film’s first Lifetime Achievement Award to Bob Rafelson. Bob was the first recipient of Aspen Film’s Independent by Nature Award back in 1999, so twenty years later, it is only appropriate that we bestow this award on such a gifted, unique and masterful artist of our time. (Don’t miss Rafelson’s MOUNTAINS OF THE MOON (1991) which will close out the festival.)

This year’s week-long event promises something for everyone. We encourage you to come see as much as you can. As an organization, Aspen Film endeavors to help transform its movie-going public. Our year-round events, series and educational programs are presented to bring new voices and perspectives to this curious and engaged community. Our goal is to help provide a different glimpse or a new view.

We hope that what is presented over this week of cinema sparks something in you.

See you at the movies!

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

ASpen FILM LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
TO BOB RAfELSON
FOR EXCELLENCe IN THE CINEMATIC ARTS

The tradition of Aspen Film began 40 years ago when our founder, Ellen Hunt, had a vision for a small-scale but inspiring festival emphasizing an independent spirit. In its early days, Aspen Filmfest focused on the work of American independent directors, but soon broadened its lineup to include the work of ground-breaking foreign directors as well. Four decades later, we continue to showcase work from world-class independent filmmakers.

To commemorate our 40th anniversary, we are presenting our first-ever Aspen Film Lifetime Achievement Award for Excellence in the Cinematic Arts to Bob Rafelson — renegade and ground-breaking director, producer, and writer whose career spans four decades.

Rafelson, an Aspen local for the past 40 years, is credited with launching the careers of Bruce Dern, Jessica Lange, Sally Field, Arnold Schwarzenegger, and Jennifer Lopez by giving them their first serious film roles. Jack Nicholson attributes Rafelson with boosting his career, having “saved him from cheap exploitation movies”.

His protean skills as an artist and filmmaker, along with his innate ability to identify talent set Rafelson apart, as did his unflinching approach to filmmaking. He immersed himself in his work and refused to ever compromise his vision.

Filmmakers like Francis Ford Coppola, Quentin Tarantino, Peter Bogdanovich and Wes Anderson extol his style and commitment to what he perceived as an overly obsessive perfection with his work. It is his independent spirit and resolute style which stand out and make him a true original.

Aspen Film salutes Bob Rafelson. We hope the foundation that he established in the motion pictures carries on through another generation.

Congratulations on a most defined cinematic career - we are Aspen-proud to have a filmmaker of your caliber in our midst.

Understanding the long arm of childhood trauma through extensive scientific research has become an inspirational movement dedicated to bringing trauma informed care to everyone around the globe. Childhood trauma is not a mental illness, but a mental injury, and understanding its biological effects is lifting the stigma and shame and freeing people from believing they were born broken. The good news is that we know how to treat trauma — but first we need to understand what it actually is; how it affects the brain and body and where it comes from.

Join us for a powerful, honest and enlightening conversation that will lift your spirits, bring you answers, connect us and bring us hope!

Award winning filmmaker and trauma survivor Michelle Esrick will share her personal experience and hope as well as her extensive research with renowned trauma experts. Michelle will be joined by Sandy Iglehart to get to the heart of truly healing trauma.

WHAT WILL BECOME OF US
2:00pm

Frank Lowy, founder of shopping mall giant Westfield, started with one Australian store and built it into a global, billion-dollar enterprise. Now in his late 80s and facing the prospect of a merger that will lead to his retirement, he reflects on his past and events that have molded him into the fighter, philanthropist and survivor he is today. Born Jewish in what was then Czechoslovakia in 1930, Lowy survived the Holocaust, moved to Australia and built a close family and business empire. Revisiting the sites of his childhood and young adulthood, this film takes us on an intimate journey of a man who seems to have it all but is keenly aware of the past and challenges of the future for himself and his family. Lowy's extraordinary life—from the ghettos of Budapest to living as a refugee in Palestine—is the story of his achievements despite all challenges and a testament to the value and impact of a single life in the lives of others. JUDY
5:00pm
Wheeler Opera House
Winter 1968: Showbiz legend Judy Garland (Renée Zellweger) arrives in Swinging London to perform in a sell-out run at The Talk of the Town. It is 30 years since she shot to global stardom in THE WIZARD OF OZ, but if her voice has weakened, its dramatic intensity has only grown. As she prepares for the show, battles with management, charms musicians, and reminisces with friends and adoring fans, her wit and warmth shine through. Even her dreams of romance seem dimmed as she embarks on a courtship with Mickey Deans (Finn Wittrock), her soon-to-be fifth husband. And yet Judy is fragile. After working for 45 of her 47 years, she is exhausted; haunted by memories of a childhood lost to Hollywood; gripped by a desire to be back home with her kids. Will she have the strength to go on? Featuring some of her best-known songs, including the timeless classic ‘Over the Rainbow’, JUDY celebrates the voice, the capacity for love and the sheer pizzazz of “the world’s greatest entertainer.” (United Kingdom, 2018) 118 MIN

MOVING STORIES
12:00pm | Isis Theatre

Six diverse dancers from an acclaimed American company travel the world, teaching the tools of choreography to young people who’ve experienced war, poverty, prejudice, sexual exploitation, and severe trauma as refugees, so that they can tell their stories through dance. In India they work with girls rescued from sex trafficking and gender violence; in Romania, with Roma kids from one of Europe’s worst slums; in South Korea, with North Koreans who risked their lives to escape; and in Iraq, with a gifted young Muslim dancer, fighting to survive. Incredibly, they have just one week to teach kids who may be enemies, who may have been abused, who may be suspicious and fearful, to create dances to perform for their communities. Yet as they prepare to perform in public in what seems an impossible short time, both students and teachers experience surprising transformations, unlocking feelings and stories in wellsprings of creativity. Fascinated by the most fearsome creatures on Earth, he has developed a unique approach, that puts him directly in front of his subjects, without any protection. Now, at the age of 65, he is about to face his ultimate challenge: to swim with a polar bear with only his camera between them. Bob Rafelson, one of the leading figures in American cinema, has distinguished himself as director, writer, and producer of a group of films with 3 Academy Award® wins, and 14 nominations between them. In 1966, Rafelson created the TV cult hit THE MONKEES, which garnered an Emmy® Award for outstanding comedy series. He went on to make his feature film directorial debut with HEAD, co-written by himself and Jack Nicholson, starring The Monkees. He then established BBS Productions with his partners Bert Schneider and Steve Blauner. That company was the spawning ground for an artistic renaissance in American filmmaking, producing EASY RIDER, FIVE EASY PIECES, THE LAST PICTURE SHOW, and the documentary, HEARTS AND MINDS. In 1970, Rafelson was honored with the New York Film Critics Best Director Award for FIVE EASY PIECES. He then followed up with THE KING OF MARVIN GARDENS, starring Jack Nicholson, Bruce Dern, and Ellen Burstyn. In STAY HUNGRY, Rafelson nurtured promising young talent, with breakthrough roles for Jeff Bridges, Sally Field, and Arnold Schwarzenegger. THE POSTMAN ALWAYS RINGS TWICE from a screenplay by David Mamet, starred Jack Nicholson and the still relatively unknown Jessica Lange, along with Anjelica Huston. BLACK WIDOW, starring Debra Winger and Theresa Russell, saw Rafelson stretching the boundaries of the psychological thriller. Shot on location in Africa, MOUNTAINS OF THE MOON chronicled the 19th century search for the source of the Nile by British adventurers Sir Richard Burton and John Hanning Speke. BLOOD AND WINE marked Rafelson’s eighth film with Jack Nicholson, and co-starred Michael Caine and Jennifer Lopez. Rafelson also directed POODLE SPRINGS, an adaptation of a Raymond Chandler book, and in 2001, directed NO GOOD DEED, based on the Dashell Hammett story. See page 3 for full tribute details.

CHANGING THE GAME

Filmmaker Michael Barnett’s richly textured documentary illuminates an issue both timely and topical, but at its core captures the warm-hearted, courageous characters living within it. Caught in the center of a national debate on transgender civil rights, these athletes channel the endurance they’ve learned from their sports into their ever more public advocacy battles. Each of these dedicated teens shows immense perseverance in the face of unheasened vitriol from choruses of parents and pundits alike, developing an emotional maturity far beyond anything their young age should require, and inspiring people of all ages to live proudly in their truths. Still, a network of support emerges to bolster their resolve, and despite the extreme anger of their opposition, each of these young forces of nature triumphantly overcomes hurdle after hurdle in their individual journey to live as their true selves and pursue what they love. MUSEUM TOWN tells the unique story of the power of art to transform a desolate post-industrial city. In 2017, MASS MoCA became the largest museum for contemporary art in the world—but just three decades before, its vast brick buildings were the abandoned relics of a massive shuttered factory. Threaded with interviews with celebrated artists including Nick Cave and David Byrne, and featuring narration by Meryl Streep, MUSEUM TOWN traces the remarkable story of how a small rural Massachusetts town went from economic collapse to art mecca. CRACKED UP

8:00pm

Wheeler Opera House

In CRACKED UP we witness the impact that childhood trauma can have across a lifetime through the courageous story of comedian, actor and Saturday Night Live legend Darrell Hammond. Renowned for impressions of Bill Clinton, Sean Connery and hundreds more, Hammond wowed SNL audiences for a record-breaking 14 seasons. Although Hammond performed brilliantly on live TV, behind the scenes he suffered from debilitating flashbacks, self-injury and addictions, symptoms which were misdiagnosed by over 40 doctors as mental illnesses. Not until a suicide attempt that brought Hammond together with Dr. Nabi Kotb, was he properly diagnosed and treated, unleashing the memories his brain had locked away. Esrick gracefully weaves together comedy and tragedy, helping us to understand the biological effects of childhood trauma in a new light. Breaking down barriers of stigma and replacing shame with compassion and hope, CRACKED UP reveals what is possible when science meets the human spirit. (USA, 2019) 95 MIN

WeRiseUP: THE FUTURE OF HUMANITY

12:00pm

Isis Theatre

The world is in the midst of a tremendous period of transition and our current models aren’t adequate to support the future that is quickly emerging. At this critical inflection point, WeRiseUP asks a fundamental question: What is success? Through an intimate inquiry with leading business, entertainment, and thought leaders, along with voices of global citizens from all walks of life, the film explores new personal, systemic and collective models of success, prosperity, contribution and what it will take for humanity to create a thriving future. Transitioning between intimate dialogue to cinematically stunning visuals and music driven interstitials, this film is a radical departure from the expert-driven documentary, into a profound personal journal of inquiry, reflection and action. HONEY BOY
4:30pm
Wheeler Opera House
From a screenplay by Shia LaBeouf, based on his own experiences, award-winning filmmaker Alma Har’el (BOMBAY BEACH, LOVETRUE) brings to life a young actor’s stormy childhood and early adult years as he struggles to reconcile with his father and deal with his mental health. Fictionalizing his ascent to stardom, and subsequent crash-landing into rehab and recovery, Har’el casts Noah Jupe (A QUIET PLACE) and Lucas Hedges (BOY ERASED, MANCHESTER BY THE SEA) as Otis Lort, navigating different stages in a frenetic career. LaBeouf takes on the therapeutic challenge of playing a version of his own father, an ex-rodeo clown and a felon. Dancer-singer FKA twigs makes her feature-film debut, playing neighbor and kindred spirit to the younger Otis in their garden-court motel home. Har’el’s feature narrative debut is a one-of-a-kind collaboration between filmmaker and subject, exploring art as medicine and imagination as hope through the life and times of a talented, traumatized performer who dares to go in search of himself. PICTURE OF HIS LIFE
7:00pm
Crystal Theatre

As one of the greatest underwater photographers of all time, Amos Nachoum has swum with crocodiles and killer whales, with anacondas and with great white sharks. But one major predator has always eluded him. The legendary wildlife stills photographer had always dreamed of swimming underwater with a polar bear and capturing it face-to-face on film. Fascinated by the most fearsome creatures on Earth, he has developed a unique approach, that puts him directly in front of his subjects, without any protection. Now, at the age of 65, he is about to face his ultimate challenge: to swim with a polar bear with only his camera between them. While he is on this journey to the Canadian high Arctic, he will also have to deal with an old and painful memory. (ISRAEL, USA) 72 MIN

CHANGING THE GAME
5:00pm

Filmmaker Michael Barnett’s richly textured documentary illuminates an issue both timely and topical, but at its core captures the warm-hearted, courageous characters living within it. Caught in the center of a national debate on transgender civil rights, these athletes channel the endurance they’ve learned from their sports into their ever more public advocacy battles. Each of these dedicated teens shows immense perseverance in the face of unharnessed vitriol from choruses of parents and pundits alike, developing an emotional maturity far beyond anything their young age should require, and inspiring people of all ages to live proudly in their truth. Still, a network of support emerges to bolster their resolve, and despite the extreme anger of their opposition, each of these young forces of nature triumphantly overcomes hurdle after hurdle in their individual journey to live as their true selves and pursue what they love. CRACKED UP
7:00pm
Crystal Theatre

In CRACKED UP we witness the impact that childhood trauma can have across a lifetime through the courageous story of comedian, actor and Saturday Night Live legend Darrell Hammond. Renowned for impressions of Bill Clinton, Sean Connery and hundreds more, Hammond wowed SNL audiences for a record-breaking 14 seasons. Although Hammond performed brilliantly on live TV, behind the scenes he suffered from debilitating flashbacks, self-injury and addictions, symptoms which were misdiagnosed by over 40 doctors as mental illnesses. Not until a suicide attempt that brought Hammond together with Dr. Nabil Kotbi, was he properly diagnosed and treated, unleashing the memories his brain had locked away. Esrick gracefully weaves together comedy and tragedy, helping us to understand the biological effects of childhood trauma in a new light. Breaking down barriers of stigma and replacing shame with compassion and hope, CRACKED UP reveals what is possible when science meets the human spirit. (USA, 2019) 95 MIN

MUSEUM TOWN tells the unique story of the power of art to transform a desolate post-industrial city. In 2017, MASS MoCA became the largest museum for contemporary art in the world—but just three decades before, its vast brick buildings were the abandoned relics of a massive shuttered factory. Threaded with interviews with celebrated artists including Nick Cave and David Byrne, and featuring narration by Meryl Streep, MUSEUM TOWN traces the remarkable story of how a small rural Massachusetts town went from economic collapse to art mecca. Film Educates
For more than 20 years, Aspen Film has dedicated itself to youth education and outreach. We believe that film is a vibrant artistic expression and powerful communication tool, able to open windows to the world and build bridges of understanding between cultures. While movies may not change our world, they can make a difference in how we see and live in it. Aspen Film’s free school programs seek to expand worldviews, develop critical viewing skills, cultivate curiosity and inspire creativity. As more and more schools eliminate media literacy from their curricula, Aspen Film helps fill that void by providing extensive free programs for youth, an underserved segment of our population with limited access to age-appropriate cultural opportunities. Our FilmEducates programs are incredibly popular with teachers who value film for its compelling appeal to students and its ability to illustrate issues, concepts and ideas with succinct storytelling. Students and teachers are invited to experience in-depth public panel discussions with filmmakers and invited industry professionals on various topics relating to the art and industry of filmmaking today.

Making Movies Matter
Aspen Film provides films and themed shorts packages (e.g., immigration, the environment, creative storytelling) to enrich curricula in language and visual arts, history, world geography, social sciences and ESL.

Panel Discussions
Students and teachers are invited to experience in-depth public panel discussions with filmmakers and invited industry professionals on various topics relating to the art and industry of filmmaking today.

Schools to the Festival
Schools and youth programs receive free admission to public programs during Filmfest and Shortsfest. We also distribute dozens of complimentary tickets to families and young clients of health and human services.

Tickets for Teachers
To encourage local educators to identify new films appropriate for their curricula, Aspen Film provides tickets for teachers to attend certain programs at Filmfest and Shortsfest at no charge.

Young Filmmaker Labs
At Shortsfest, visiting filmmakers meet with high school students to screen films, including student works-in-progress, explore the creative process and offer feedback on students’ work.

Youth Jury
A recruited jury comprising local middle and high school students awards a student prize to their favorite Shortsfest film. Filmmakers have said that winning this award is one of the highest honors at the festival.

why aspen film?

With a history going back to 1979, and a mission to enlighten, enrich, educate and entertain through film, Aspen Film has been creating unique and memorable experiences for both the cinephile and the casual movie lover throughout the Roaring Fork Valley for four decades. Aspen Film is more than just a film festival. We are, in fact, a film society that puts on three significant film festivals annually, organizes year-round film programming, produces special film events and offers a robust educational program that extends beyond our valley. One of our main objectives is to present the best of cinema from around the globe. We embrace the spirit of community, striving to align ourselves with partners throughout the valley who share our mission and passion. Film is a discipline that flourishes within the arts, humanities, and many sciences. Using cinema to highlight education, art and culture is a way to bolster the work of our neighbors and colleagues. Aspen Film endeavors to highlight diverse views and provide a glimpse into something new. In addition to adult programs offering one-of-a-kind experiences with filmmakers, we create educational programs exploring the craft and theory of cinema that inspire learning in the classroom and at our festivals. Our plan is to grow Aspen Film’s footprint in the Roaring Fork Valley by incorporating these programs into summer camps and afterschool programs. Each year we welcome close to 20,000 participants to our presentations and happenings. We are committed to original content and show more than 100 regional debuts annually, many of which might not otherwise find their way to local audiences. Hosting more than 75 film artists, and other special guests every year, we provide educational experiences for audiences of all ages. The majority of these programs are offered free of charge. Aspen Film aspires to be bigger, bolder and better. We bring you unique experiences, from intimate, small group dialogues in and out of the classroom, to shorts and features on the big screen. As Aspen is remote and unique—a special place to visit but a challenging place to reach—it takes resources to get filmmakers and artists here to engage with the community, and to bring students into town to experience our programs on a deeper level. In order to amplify our contributions to the Roaring Fork Valley, we need your support. Whether it’s your feedback, word-of-mouth, donations, or membership, no gesture is too small. We are grateful for all your help, and for your time, the most valuable resource of all. Please consider making a contribution to Aspen Film, so that we can keep giving back to our community that has been so generous to us over the years.
